Summary

A groundbreaking history of pioneering alternative art venues in New York where artists experimented, exhibited, and outside the white cube and the commercial mainstream.

This groundbreaking book – part exhibition catalogue, part cultural history – chronicles alternative art spaces in New York the 1960s. Developed from an exhibition of the same name at Exit Art, Alternative Histories documents more than 130 alternative spaces, groups, and projects, and the significant contributions these organizations have made to the aesthetic and social climate of contemporary art. In New York City, the development of alternative spaces was almost synonymous with the rise of contemporary art scene. Beginning in the 1960s and early 1970s, it was within a network of alternative sites – including 112 Greene Street, The Kitchen, P.S.1, FOOD, and many others – that the work of young artists like Yvonne Rainer, Vito Acconci, Gordon Matta-Clark, Ana Mendieta, David Wojnarowicz, David Hammons, Adrian Piper, Martin Wong, Jimmie Durham, and dozens of other names first circulated.

Through interviews, photographs, essays, and archival material, Alternative Histories tells the story of such famous sites and organizations as Judson Memorial Church, Anthology Film Archives, A.I.R. Gallery, El Museo del Barrio, Franklin Furnace, as well as many less well-known sites and organizations. Essays by the exhibition curators and scholars, and excerpts of interviews with alternative space founders and staff, provide cultural and historical context.
